MRS. BARTON PETERS ... Shares English Recipes

Tasty English Delicacies In Recipe Spotlight Today

From Merrie Ole England comes our guest cook today. She is Mrs. Barton Peters, 2911 W. 168th St. Mrs. Peters and her family came to Torrance four years ago from Compton where they arrived in 1946. Mrs. Peters was born and educated in Portsmouth, England. She completed her nurses training at St. George's hospital in London. In 1940 she met her future husband in London and in 1941, during an air raid in Portsmouth, they were married.

Their son, Richard, who is now a freshman at North High School, was born in England. His younger brother, Stephen, a third grader at Casimir, was born in California.

Mrs. Peters is serving her second year as president of Casimir PTA. She has been a den mother and active in the Little League auxiliary. This is Richard's last year on a Babe Ruth-League team. Mrs. Peters also finds time to work three nights a week at the Torrance Hospital.

The Peters family attend the Church of the Holy Communion (Episcopal) in Gardena.

The usual American activities, baseball, bowling, listening to Hi-Fi and reading are the family's pastime. Mr. Peters is a member of the bowling team from the Frank Taylor Ford Agency in Los Angeles, where he works.

In today's Favorite Recipe column Mrs. Peters gives three "strictly" English recipes, the first, Lemon Cheese Tarts, was given to her by her mother.

Lemon Cheese Tarts

Pastry Tart Shells

Filling: 1/2 lb. sugar, 2 eggs, 3/4 lb. butter, 2 lemons, juice and grated rind

Melt sugar and butter. Then mix lemon juice and rind and 2 eggs together in a bowl. Steam mixture until it thickens. Keep in jars in refrigerator until needed.

Use favorite short crust recipe for the pastry shells. Bake at 425 to 450 degrees, pricking well with a fork first. When cool, fill with the lemon cheese.

Shortbread

4 oz. flour, 1 oz. sugar, 2 oz. margarine, pinch of salt

Cream fat and sugar until soft and white. Add flour gradually beating well between each addition. Shape into a lump with fingers. Turn on a lightly floured board, knead slightly until smooth. Turn over and roll out lightly. Cut the dough into fancy shaped portions. Bake in a moderately hot oven on a cookie sheet for 20 minutes. When cooked, shortbread is firm and golden brown.

Scotch Eggs

Allow to each 2 hard boiled eggs, 1/4 lb. sausage meat. Shell the eggs, roll eggs in seasoned flour. Press sausage around the eggs. Coat with egg and bread crumbs. Fry in hot fat. Drain well. May be served hot or cold.

Speak-off Slated

By Toastmistress

Eldorado Toastmistress Club will hold installation and a speak-off at their meeting Wednesday morning at Scrivener's Restaurant in Inglewood.

Mrs. William Leonard will be the installing officer and Mrs. Carl De Lorimier will serve as toastmistress.

From Torrance participating in the speak-off will be Mmes. Jean Bryant, Marion Fornelli, and Pauline Carlin.

Friends Gather

Dining together at the Plush Horse Restaurant recently were Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Clark of Torrance, Mrs. Orin Taylor of Hawthorne, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Whipple of Torrance and Jack Gutterman, Jr. of Westchester.

Dinner Hosts

Hosting dinner for a party of friends at the Plush Horse Restaurant recently were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crofford of the Hollywood Riviera, who were celebrating their return home from a business-pleasure trip to Chicago and New York City.

Waleria PTA Prepares For Mardi Gras on Feb. 6

A festive spirit is in the air as the Waleria PTA prepares for its annual carnival to be held on Friday, Feb. 6 from 5 to 9 p.m. on the school grounds. This year's theme is "Mardi Gras" and the evening's festivities will open with a costume parade.

The mid-way, where fun will prevail, will have games for both young and old. Traditional cotton candy, home cooked foods, wheel of fortune, chili and hot dogs will be offered. Mrs. Lloyd Baxely is general chairman for the carnival.

Other chairmen assisting her will be: Mmes. Jeff Ronan, Cass Ruskat, Tom Boich, Glen Hardcastle, Judy Cronk, Robert Schrauben, Paul La Fontaine, Loring Bigelow, Bill Addington, Earl Doage, Michael Malia, and Mr. Donald Mullaney.

"Whistle While You Work" was the theme of the last PTA meeting. A display of hobbies was enjoyed. Mrs. Ekira Muhl who presented a display of mosaic work, was the guest speaker.

(Continued from Page 7) mer treasurer said nothing to the members about the surplus and it doesn't seem to be in the bank.

We are all close friends and I'd feel terrible if I made him appear dishonest. Yet, it is apparent to me that the surplus is unaccounted for. What would you do if you were in my place? — T.F.H.

The incoming treasurer of any organization which collects dues should go over the program when Rosemarie Simmons gave a two voiced reading "Gentle House" and Linda Harris read "Three Faces of Eve".

A debate was then heard on the question "Should the United States Adopt the British Educational System." On the affirmative team were Robert Bee and Carolyn Gundin and on the negative were Harold Spinack and Mason Wolport.

186th Street

"Take Time for Health" was the topic at the 186th St. PTA January meeting.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Dorothy Carr, principal of the Harlan Shoemaker school for handicapped children. Mrs. Carr showed colored slides of the school and invited members to visit the students.

Musical entertainment was furnished by the El Camino college singers.

Miss Ruth Engdahl, principal, who has been on a four months leave of absence was welcomed back.

The group voted to furnish a picnic lunch for the A6 class. Mrs. Walter Stewart, president, appointed Mrs. Merrill Lindley, second vice president and room representative as chairman of the project.

On display was the work of the 4th and 5th grades. Room mothers of the 4th grade were hostesses.
